Now That I Can Read

I used to need somebody

To sit and read to me.

I'd look at every page they read

And listen carefully.

But now that I'm in the first grade,

I'm filling up a shelf

With stories, poems and other books

That I can read myself.

Handwriting

Nanu and Elee are friends.

They go to a pond. They play with water. They hear someone cry, "Help! Help!" Nanu climbs a tree. He sees a small monkey on top of a big tree. The small monkey is sad. He can't get down. He reaches the small monkey. He tells him to climb on his back.
