- State the three necessary conditions for us to be able to see the object.
- What is multiple reflection?
- Give the relationship between the angle between the two reflecting surfaces and the number of images formed by them.
- What do you call a prism that combines the component colours into white light?
- 5. What is the spectrum of white light?